JULY MEETING CHANGES: Please note: the North County Coastal Support Group meeting was changed from July 1 to July 8 and the Ramona Support Group meeting was changed from July 2 to July 16.

MARK IS SPOT ON!

Please join us for our general meeting on Monday, June 24 at 7:00 pm at Jewish Family Service (JFS), 8788 Balboa Avenue, San Diego.

Our guest speaker is Mark Maddox who has three important roles in the community. He is Director of Volunteer Engagement at Mama's Kitchen, on the Board of Directors for Lambda Archives, and Parade Co-Manager for San Diego Pride.

Mark recently took over the reigns as Director of Volunteer Engagement at Mama's Kitchen last month. He will give you an overview of what Mama's Kitchen's role is in the community and the many ways you can help. He may even have a word or two about Pride Weekend.

Please join us for support groups, the cookie social, then Mark's presentation.

KNOW YOUR DRAG QUEENS

As a part of the groundbreaking exhibition, LGBTQ+ San Diego: Stories of Struggles + Triumphs, the San Diego History Center will shine the spotlight on the performance art of drag. This new exhibit is entitled, "Legendary Drag Queens of San Diego!" The Opening Reception is June 21 from 6:00-9:00 pm. San Diego History Center Members are free and non-members are $10. It will remain there through September 8. This is part of the commemoration of the 50th anniversary of the Stonewall rebellion—a pivotal moment in LGBTQ+ history.

Curated by noted LGBTQ+ historian and author Dr. Lillian Faderman, and in collaboration with the Imperial Court de San Diego, the exhibit will feature elaborate, glittering costumes and personal stories of leading drag queens who have made their name not only locally but nationally. San Diego's First Lady Katherine Faulconer, wife of San Diego's mayor, will be the Honorary Chair of the exhibition.

The History Center is located at 1649 El Prado in Balboa Park, catty-corner from The Natural History Museum.

BE PART OF TRANS PRIDE

The 6th Annual Trans Pride celebration is the first official event of Pride Weekend. On July 12, from 1:00-6:00 pm, in Balboa Park at 6th and El Prado, you can be part of the fun. The event is free and family friendly. Trans folks, friends, and allies are encouraged to attend. You are welcome to bring a picnic lunch. There will be entertainment, food, and games. At 5:00 pm, there will be a march to the Hillcrest Pride Flag to join the Spirit of Stonewall Rally and Awards.

Resource tables are available for businesses/organizations that serve the trans community, as well as businesses or organizations owned by trans folks. To complete an application, go to www.facebook.com/SDTransPride. It is due by June 30. If you would like to volunteer or need more information, contact Kathie Moehlig: Kathie@transfamilyssos.org or 858-382-9156.

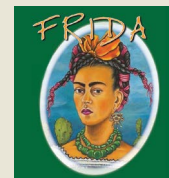

DON'T MISS OUT

You are invited to attend the 3rd Annual Pride Business Mega-Mixer, July 11 from 5:00-8:00 pm at Rich's San Diego, 1051 University Avenue in Hillcrest. You can mix and mingle during a festive happy hour with a diverse group of LGBTQ+ and allied business professionals, Employee Resource Groups, and organizations.

Hosted by the San Diego LGBT Visitors Center, SD Pride, Bair Financial Planning, Equality Business Alliance, LGBT Diversity Supplier Alliance Group, and Stoli Vodka, it is a chance for hundreds of professionals to mix, make employment connections, strengthen their networks, and have a great time. Besides the peer to peer networking, there will be light music, a complimentary signature Stoli Vodka cocktail or glass of Fruitcraft Wine, hosted appetizers, door prizes, a short introductions program and a Pride Kick-Off Ribbon Cutting!

Pre-Registration Tickets are $20 (through July 10) and general admission is $25. When ordering online, you can get a discount by using discount code BAIR. To purchase, go to PrideMixer.com.

FELIZ CUMPLEAÑOS, FRIDA

On Saturday, June 22, from 6:00-10:00 pm, join the San Diego LGBTQ community at The Center as we celebrate the birthday of Frida Kahlo, commemorating the legendary life of one of the most influential Mexican painters of the mid-twentieth century. You can enjoy live music, multiple art exhibits by local Latin@ artists and vendors, a Frida look-alike contest, great food and Tequila! Proceeds from this event benefit the Nicole Murray-Ramirez Latino Services @ The Center. For tickets and more info, visit thecentersd.org/Frida.

EXPLORING GENDER. TOGETHER.

That is the theme of the Gender Odyssey conference being held in San Diego (yes, we are most fortunate) August 1-4.

Gender Odyssey is an international conference focused on the needs and interests of transgender and gender diverse children of all ages, their families and supporters, and the professionals who serve them.

The conference is packed with thought-provoking workshops, including medical information and consultation opportunities, professional education, discussion groups, networking, children and youth programming, and social events. This one-of-a-kind annual gathering attracts people from all over the world for an uplifting weekend of connection, support, and community.

Thanks in part to Executive Director, Kathie Moehlig of TransFamily Support Services (TFSS), San Diego will host this year's Gender Odyssey and serve as the on-the-ground team and co-producer. Kathie is also a PFLAG San Diego County Board member. As always, TFSS will be instrumental in networking with San Diego professionals, families, and youth; manifesting the people power needed for an event like this; and leading the outreach and accessibility efforts that are so crucial to Gender Odyssey's success. THIS IS WHERE YOU COME IN! There are many options and you can choose all of them. Volunteer! "It takes a village..." dozens of folks are needed to pitch in to make the conference a success. You can do so at <http://www.genderodyssey.org/volunteer/>. The link will give you a myriad of opportunities in ways you can help. From event set up/break down to registration and information, there are lots of positions that need to be filled in between... something for everyone! In addition, host homes are needed for families traveling to San Diego. You can sign up on the website: www.genderodyssey.org. Also, on the website, you can register for the event and check out all the programs that are happening throughout the conference. There are also some scholarships available. Be there or be square!

PRIDE AT THE POWAY LIBRARY

Join the festivities at the Poway Branch Library, 13137 Poway Road on Saturday, June 29. The library, in partnership with TransFamily Support Services (TFSS), will host the 2nd Annual Pride Resource Fair from 10:00 am-noon. It is open to LGBTQIA allies, families, and friends of all ages.

The event will be on the library's patio and give you a chance to meet organizations and advocates offering services and support to San Diego's large and diverse community. There will be public speakers representing local community leaders and you'll hear from LGBTQIA youth.

Highlights include entertainment, an open mic session, art exhibition, and an all-ages craft. Light refreshments will be served.

Besides TFSS, partners include PFLAG San Diego County, North County LGBTQ Resource Center, Lambda Archive, Stonewall Citizens' Patrol, and Kaiser Medicare.

"But seeing those straight parents out there on the streets saying 'yes, I'm here in this parade because I love my kid and I am not ashamed' kills me every time. Anyway, the reason this exists, the reason this phenomenon exists in America, the reason there are all of these totally normal average moms and dads out there with this dignified, remarkable tears-inducing public proclamation of love for their kids is because of this specific incident--this moment in time."

LEADING INTO OTHER POWAY MOMENTS...

This is a perfect time to highlight the facilitators of the North County Inland PFLAG Support Group who meet in Poway. Dan Conger (he, him) and Jill Conger (she, her) have been co-facilitators for the past two years. Together, they run the support meetings, collaborate for parades, and organize local outreach events such as street fairs and speaking engagements. Dan is the most recent addition to the PFLAG San Diego Board of Directors. He made all the sturdy direction signs for all the support groups which have been most helpful.

Dan said "We raised our children in an inclusive and loving house so when both of our girls came out as adults, we wanted to make sure we were being as understanding as possible and looked to PFLAG. We immediately liked the supporting community and both Jill and I saw that our small contributions to group discussions were helpful to others. Once we asked how can we could help, we were in."

They can be reached at RBPowayPFLAGSDC@pflag.com or at 760-855-9424.

POMP AND CIRCUMSTANCE

Congratulations to PFLAG San Diego County Board member Brenda Arnold as she becomes a graduate of the Young Professionals Council Academy at the LGBT Center. When you read her bio, you won't wonder she was one of the select few chosen to participate. The graduation ceremony and brunch takes place on Saturday, June 29 at The Prado in Balboa Park at 11:00 am. If you wish to purchase a ticket for the brunch, log onto <https://thecentersd.org/programs/young-professionals-council/>.

Originally from Tijuana, Mexico Brenda immigrated to the United States almost two decades ago and became a citizen in 2014. She graduated from UABC Business Program in Mexico, and also graduated from the Boards and Commissions Leadership Institute last year. During the past five year, she has become embroiled in activism. She is co-chartering the ACLU's grass roots organization, People Power South Bay, and currently is serving as the membership coordinator and social media director. People Power South Bay has been a recognized group that advocates and works for immigrants of all status. Brenda is a member-at-large of South Bay Alliance. She was recently elected as the president of the Eastlake Bonita Democratic Club, after having served as the public relations officer and secretary. Brenda recently returned as a delegate to the California State Democratic Convention. She's also a member of Mi Familia, an organization serving as a support group for LGBTQ families, allies, and communities. Brenda is a pansexual, unapologetic married mother of four on a mission to give a voice to those who are silenced and to challenge those who silence them.

SIGNIFICANT OTHER

You still have time to see Significant Other, being performed at the Diversionary Theatre through June 23. Synopsis: As Jordan Berman pounds the New York City pavement searching for Mr. Right, he wards off lonely nights with his trio of close-knit girlfriends. As singles' nights turn into bachelorette parties, Jordan must face his own capacity to love and be loved. This hilarious and heart-wrenching Broadway comedy dives into the trenches of urban single life and the aspirational gay wedding, reminding us that you can't hurry love—no matter how much you wish you could.

For performance times and ticket info, go to: www.diversionary.org. You can also call: 619-220-0097. For $5 off each ticket, use Promo Code PFLAG. The theatre is located at 4545 Park Blvd. in San Diego.

5B is the inspirational story of everyday heroes, nurses and caregivers who took extraordinary action to comfort, protect and care for the patients of the first AIDS ward unit in the United States. 5B is stirringly told through first-person testimony of these nurses and caregivers who built Ward 5B in 1983 at San Francisco General Hospital, their patients, loved ones, and staff who volunteered to create care practices based in humanity and holistic well-being during a time of great uncertainty. The result is an uplifting yet candid and bittersweet monument to a pivotal moment in American history and a celebration of quiet heroes, nurses and caregivers worthy of renewed recognition. It is only playing for a few days at the AMC Fashion Valley: June 14, 15, 16 at 7:00 pm and 9:45 pm. More theatres and dates will be added at a later time.

LOVE CALLS BACK

PFLAG National and Verizon teamed up to produce a video, Love Calls Back. You can view the video on PFLAG National's web site, www.pflag.org. It was very surprising to see the following commercial on TV.

AND SPEAKING OF THE DIVERSIONARY...

Diversionary Theatre is proud to present Teen-Versionary, their teen acting company exploring the LGBT experience. The group is comprised of LGBTQ teens and their allies, youth to recent high school graduates, and creates a safe space to creatively explore the story and characters of the play they will be presenting, Dear Harvey. The workshops are July 1-11, 9:00 am-3:00 pm. The play will be performed on Friday, July 12, at 2:00 pm and Saturday, July 13 at 3:30 pm at the Diversionary Theatre, 4545 Park Blvd., San Diego. This documentary-style ensemble play recounts the life and lasting impact of groundbreaking LGBT activist and politician Harvey Milk, as told by the people who knew him best.

For tuition and scholarship details, go to diversionary.org/education/, click Teen-Versionary and then Enrollment Form. For questions, contact Education Associate, Skyler Sullivan, at ssullivan@diversionary.org or 619-220-6830 x109.

FEATURING

Receiving the Mary Wagner Memorial Scholarship is Laura James. Laura is working on her second master's degree which she highlights in her essay. While she is supportive of the LGBTQ+ population, she is a strong advocate in supporting the transgender community. Besides being active at Alliant International University, she is active in the LGBTQ+ community. Donors of part of the scholarship, Marilyn and Art Carpenter, were visiting from Alaska and were able to present the scholarship to Laura in person.

"I am currently a graduate student in the Couple and Family Therapy master's program at the California School of Professional Psychology at Alliant International University's San Diego campus. As a future therapist, the population I want to work with is the LGBTQIA+ community, and I strive to bring elements of LGBTQIA+ perspectives and resources to each of my classes.

In addition to being a full-time student, I am the current president and a former secretary of PRIDE@Alliant, a student-led organization whose mission is to 'create a movement of social justice and advocacy toward inclusion and diversity for all [Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual] and Transgender/Gender Non-conforming/Non-binary students and allies of the Alliant University community and beyond.'

I have been involved with PRIDE@Alliant since I began my studies in August 2018. During this time, we have provided multiple training events for students, faculty, and members of the community. Training topics have included American Psychological Association guidelines for working with LGBT clients, HIV awareness, affirmative practices in therapy, bias awareness, vocabulary, sexual orientation, gender identity, creating safe spaces, and becoming an ally, as well as providing networking opportunities and discussion groups with LGBTQIA+ community panels. My team has also effected change and promoted inclusion by challenging the university to reassign all single-stall restrooms on campus as gender-neutral and to update signage, and we continue to look for ways to make our campus more inclusive.

I identify as cisgender and lesbian, and I am also the parent of a 10-year-old child who identifies as bisexual. When news that the Trump Administration was seeking to redefine gender, my daughter and I discussed the impact that this biased decision would have on people who identify as transgender/non-binary. Together, we decided that we must take action. We made posters, and I took my daughter to her first political protest – the Won't Be Erased March and Rally in San Diego. Raising children who not only understand equity and social justice issues but who are dedicated to promoting these ideals are among my highest priorities.

I retired from active-duty in July 2018 after serving more than 20 years in the Navy and am a disabled combat Veteran. The majority of my time in the military was spent serving in silence under Don't Ask, Don't Tell. I have witnessed and experienced the harm that a non-affirming or hostile milieu can cause, as well as challenges members of the LGBTQIA+ community face in locating affirming mental health providers. It is largely because of these experiences that I decided to pursue a career in mental health.

I believe I have demonstrated, throughout my life, my dedication to making the world a better place. Even when I was unable to live openly during my military service, I found ways to promote diversity and inclusion, serving as an equal opportunity advisor and as president of multicultural committees at multiple duty stations. When Don't Ask, Don't Tell was finally repealed, I immediately came out as lesbian; I knew it was important for younger LGBTQIA+ Sailors to have an ally and for those more senior to have someone to hold them accountable. I also played an instrumental role in the policy repeal implementation, advising leaders and providing training to all paygrades.

Now that I am embarking on the next chapter of my life, I am no longer restrained by military policies. I can become more openly involved in social justice issues and will continue to advocate for oppressed and marginalized populations. As PRIDE@Alliant president, I will continue to lead my team in developing current, relevant, and affirming LGBTQIA+ training curricula and in holding monthly training workshops for current and future mental health professionals.

Once I complete my master's degree in couple and family therapy, I plan to pursue my doctorate in couple and family therapy, where I can better focus on trans-related areas of psychological research. In my future practice as an LGBTQ-affirming therapist, I plan to specialize in gender therapy and in issues impacting trans/non-binary clients and their families, helping clients address and navigate their gender journeys to become their most authentic selves."

WE ARE NOT WHAT OTHER PEOPLE SAY WE ARE. WE ARE WHO WE KNOW OURSELVES TO BE, AND WE ARE WHAT WE LOVE. THAT'S OKAY. --LAVERNE COX

STONEWALL 50: A LEGACY OF LIBERATION

This is a perfect time to kick off San Diego Pride's 45th Pride celebration, taking place July 12-14. This year marks the 50th anniversary of the Stonewall Riots, a moment in history where members of the LGBT community fought back against police brutality and the legal oppression and "won." It started with a series of violent confrontations that began in the early hours of June 28, 1969, between police, who were brutal in the treatment of the gay community, and gay rights activists at the Stonewall Inn, a gay bar in the Greenwich Village. The "event" lasted three days and is heralded as the beginning of the mainstream LGBT rights movement.

July 12 (Friday): Spirit of Stonewall Rally and Awards - they will be presented to individuals or groups who contribute significantly to the LGBT community through their leadership, activism, and fundraising effort. The location for the rally is the Hillcrest Pride Flag, 1500 University Avenue, Hillcrest, starting at 6:00 pm. The event is free..

July 13 (Saturday): At 8:00 am, Front Runners and Walkers will have their Pride 5K Run/Walk beginning at University Avenue at Centre Street. To register, go to: www.frwsd.org.

July 13 (Saturday): PLEASE NOTE THE TIME FOR THE PRIDE PARADE, AS THE START TIME HAS CHANGED FROM PREVIOUS YEARS: it at 10:00 am. It starts at University Avenue and Normal Street in Hillcrest. The route is 1.5 miles. If you have never marched in San Diego's parade, please join the PFLAG contingent as we walk shoulder to shoulder with TransFamily Support Services, Transparents Tucson, and Transforming Family. Besides all the excitement of the event, the crowd goes crazy when PFLAG passes by. There are upwards of 100,000 spectators. And speaking of walking 1.5 miles, if you cannot walk that distance and want to ride in the parade, please contact Mike Minnick immediately. Mike can be reached at 619-804-5512 or mminnick@pflag.com. Free event.

After the parade (until 10:00 pm) is the Pride Festival (also Sunday, July 14 from 11:00 am-9:00 pm), which includes multiple stages of entertainment, more than 80 musicians, bands, comedy and dance performers, 300 participating vendor booths, an art exhibit, cultural presentations, and great food! There is also a Farmers Market, Beer Garden, and Youth Zone. Most important is our PFLAG booth, located on the main drag. The festival is located at Marston Point at 6th and Laurel in Balboa Park. Tickets are $20 for one day and $25 for the weekend (+$1.75 service charge if purchased online). To purchase tickets: www.sdpride.org. Please note, there are no discounts for seniors or military. At the Festival, tickets are $30.00 which is a weekend pass. High school aged youth and younger are free and passes are given out at the box office.

The main entertainment features Melissa Etheridge who will perform on the main stage Sunday at 7:00 pm. For a list of other entertainers, go to sdpride.org/festival-line-up/.

Anyone wanting to volunteer to work at the PFLAG booth at the Festival (Saturday or Sunday), please contact Mike Minnick at 619-804-5512 or mminnick@pflag.com.

Here comes the lecture part. For the Pride Parade on Saturday, read this BEFORE YOU LEAVE HOME! These are suggestions that have stood the test of time: 1) get to the shuttle buses early; there are free shuttle buses from the old Balboa Naval Hospital located on Park Blvd., across from President's Way. If you are a procrastinator, now isn't the time, as the buses back up and you'll be waiting in line so long that you'll miss part of the parade, 2) wear comfortable shoes, 3) put on lots of sun block, 4) wear a hat, 5) bring a camera/cell phone, 6) make PFLAG signs and bring them, 7) wear as much PFLAG/rainbow clothing and paraphernalia as you own.

Here are a few suggestions for signs:

Closets are for Clothes, Focus on Your Own Family, Gay Rights ARE Civil Rights, Homophobia - Now That's a Choice, I'm for the Separation of Church and Hate, Homophobia - That's SO last millennium, I'm the Pink Sheep of the Family, Love Knows No Gender, Protect Marriage. Let's Expand It, What Part of Love Don't You Understand?, We the People - that means all of us.

Hope to see your decorated selves and signs at the Parade.

SOME COUNTRIES GET IT

American Christian extremist Steven Anderson, best known for his hateful diatribes and calls for violence against LGBTQ people, has been denied entry into 26 European countries. The Arizona pastor has already been banned from Jamaica, South Africa, the UK, and Canada; he was arrested and deported while in Botswana in 2016.

Anderson is a Holocaust denier who praised the Pulse Nightclub shooter. He claims the Bible says they were "death worthy."

In the past, Anderson has encouraged his congregants to kill all gay people, calling it a "cure for AIDS." He has also advocated for world governments to execute gay people, saying the Bible commands that certain people be put to death. He claims gay people not be put to death by him or other Christians, but feels "the government's job is to punish criminals and to execute those who committed capital crimes. And according to the Bible, homosexuality is a capital crime. And I didn't write the Bible." Sick man.
